

I am Etoki Alice-Brenda. I made my first vows on 22nd February 2015 and I am in the Tiko community, in the anglophone part of Cameroon.

I teach in « Christ the King » college in Tiko and I am a member of the group for vocation ministry in the Buea Diocese. I also join in pastoral ministry in the Tiko Parish.

My relationship with Christ gives me energy and joy. I know that in the Mission my Congregation has entrusted to me I am serving Him and I can show all those I meet how much He loves them. It is really a deep joy for me when the people among whom I work are happy and responsive to the love the Lord has for them. But when I meet sad, preoccupied people I feel touched and I am saddened when the students cannot understand the course.

For me, to be a sister for those in difficulty means to try to befriend them and be true with them. I encourage them and accompany them in prayer. I try to enable them to feel God's love for them and to know He has a plan for them and that their life has meaning, so that they may turn to the Lord.

Living our charism : UNITY AND RECONCILIATION, is a wonderful help to me in my apostolic work even if it is also a challenge!
